

Concealed Cistern tank body must be tested with water before installation to exclude products damaged by force majeure during transportation. Final determine the installation height of the frame after consider the wall hung toilet height .

